"The world's leading creatives nominate the finest color photography"

For Immediate Release:

INTERNATIONAL COLOR AWARDS HONORS
NATURE PHOTOGRAPHER FROM USA – ATLANTA, GA

LONDON, UK (May 7, 2006) – Nature Photographer Aaron Fink of Atlanta, GA, USA was presented with the 2006 International Color Awards Nominee Award in the category of Nature, Amateur at a prestigious live online Awards Ceremony recognizing excellence in color photography.

Thousands of images were received from over fifty two countries. The nominated photographers were selected by a who's who Judging Panel of the most esteemed creative professionals in art and photography from National Geographic Channel in Washington DC to Vogue and the Fine Art Society in London. The Panel reviewed submitted images online over a six week period and gave prizes in twenty two categories to photographers of twenty nine nationalities. Fink's Clown Fish C47, an exceptional image entered in the Nature category received a high percentage of votes overall.

"The Color Awards celebrates photographers who operate at the highest levels of their craft," said the awards Creative Director, Basil O'Brien. "Aaron Fink's entry certainly represents color imaging at its finest and we're pleased to present him with the Nominee Award."
